

Toward inclusivity with racial equity

Intersection of Race and Accessibility – One Day Forum

Are you involved in accessibility planning in the public and broader public sector? This professional development opportunity is for you.

Come hear from disability activists and practitioners from diverse communities share their thoughts and experiences addressing issues of accessibility and race. This forum will discuss an intersectionality lens with key stakeholders involved in the implementation of the AODA. It will also engage diverse cultural and faith communities. March 21st is The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. Stay tuned for program details.
